

Emergency Diagnostic Imaging - Case studies -

Interactive discussion of cardiac, thoracic and abdominal emergency case studies

Friday 12th, June 2009, 08.00 – 12.00 a. m.
In the Langenbeck-Virchow-Haus, in 10117 Berlin

Program:

08:00 - 12:00 a. m.	Welcome and introduction of the speakers Interactive discussion of cardiac, thoracic and abdominal emergency case studies. The lecturers will present medical reports of different emergency cases and will elaborate the further diagnostic workup together with the participants. The focus will be kept on the evaluation and interpretation of thoracic and abdominal x-ray and ultrasound pictures. Possibilities of interventional and therapeutic procedures will be discussed.
09:50 – 10:10 a. m.	Coffee break

Speakers: Beate Bosch, clinic for pets, University of Leipzig
Esther Hassdenteufel, University of Gießen

Participation fee: Registration till May, 15th 2009 € 175,00 excl. of VAT
(= € 208,25 VAT included)
Registration from May, 16th 2009 € 195,00 excl. of VAT
(= € 232,05 VAT included)

There's a reduction of 10% for owners of a scil-card

Course meets the requirement for 4 hours of continuing education credit in the jurisdictions which recognize ATF (Germany) approval.

This seminar will be held in German. There will be no simultaneous translation!

Information & registration:

scil vet academy GmbH
Dina-Weißmann-Allee 6
68519 Viernheim
Tel.: 06204 / 7890 444
Fax: 06204 / 7890 400
Email: info@scilvet-academy.com